UM WILL CONDUCT ART CLASSES FOR CHILDREN

Art enrichment classes for children in grades four through eight will be conducted again this year by the University of Montana Art Department, Richard B. Reinholtz, chairman, announced.

Classes will meet on campus from 9 to 11:30 a.m. Saturdays, starting Oct. 7 and ending Dec. 9

Students may concentrate in one of these areas: drawing and painting, three-dimensional design, or printmaking. Each area will be limited to 25 pupils.

Students will also take field trips, hear lectures and see art films and slides.

A 50¢ fee per session, a total of $5 for the 10 weeks, is payable by the second session.

Further information is available from the UM Art Department, 243-4181.
